XXX INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE
ON POLYPHENOLS

Dear Colleagues,

We are getting close to the abstract submission deadline of the XXX International Conference on Polyphenols (ICP2020TURKU), organized in Turku, Finland on 13–16 July 2020. See the previous announcements here: 1st announcement & 2nd announcement.

10 DAYS UNTIL THE ABSTRACT SUBMISSION DEADLINE

If you want to have an oral presentation in the conference, you must submit your 1-page abstract (max. 300 words) in time. The scientific committee will use these short abstracts to distribute the oral and poster presentations between the main topics of the conference. Read the instructions for the abstract and send the abstract to us by 31 January 2020.

EVEN 94 CHANCES FOR ORAL PRESENTATIONS

The scientific program includes 14 invited plenaries and even 80 selected talks together with poster sessions. PhD students and postdocs are given special opportunities in young scientists sessions. The number of these parallel sessions will be decided on the basis of the abstracts submitted by the young scientists.

CONFERENCE REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN

You can now officially register for the conference. For your convenience, we have added the hotel options directly into the online registration. You can thus book the hotel at the same time as you register (hotel options here). We added some evening activities into the registration form as well. Feel free to book them now, or later. More options for evening activities are found here.

SAVE UP TO €300 IN REGISTRATION FEES

We have affordable fees for PhD students, since we want to enhance their possibilities to participate in the ICP2020TURKU. Other participants can save up to €300 in registration fees by joining the Groupe Polyphénols and paying the registration fee by 1 May 2020.

FOLLOW THE CONFERENCE UPDATES IN TWITTER AND INSTAGRAM

You may also follow the Conference updates via Twitter and Instagram at @ncrg\_utu or #icp2020turku.

We are looking forward to seeing you at the ICP2020TURKU in Finland. Feel free to circulate this announcement and the attached advertisement to everyone interested in the fascinating world of polyphenols!
